

Student of the Month – March 2017

South Area

Nicholas Campos – Metal Fabrication/Welding
Hancock County Career Tech Center

Instructor's Name: Reggie Ladner

Current GPA: 3.5

Attendance: Excellent

Nicholas Campos, a student at the Hancock County Career Tech Center, is being honored by the Mississippi Construction Education Foundation as student of the month for the state's southern region.

Exhibiting a passion for career and technical education courses, Campos is dual enrolled in metal fabrication and welding with plans to add a third vocational class his senior year. A standout in the classroom, he is a Hawk Award recipient for outstanding academics at his school.

After graduation, Campos plans to pursue an apprenticeship in pipefitting or welding.