NORTH-CENTRAL AREA

Chanley McDaniel – Welding
Winston-Louisville Career and Technical Center

INSTRUCTOR'S NAME: Shane McDaniel

CURRENT GPA: 3.2
ATTENDANCE: Excellent

Chanley McDaniel, a welding student at Winston-Louisville Career and Technology Center, is being honored by the Mississippi Construction Education Foundation as student of the month for the state's north central region.

As a standout in state and national craft competitions, McDaniel is the 2017 SkillsUSA regional and state champion in the sheet metal division and Mississippi's representative to the national conference last summer. Meanwhile, he is active in his youth group at McClain Chapel Pentecostal Church, a member of the Beta Club, and a second-year officer for his state SkillsUSA chapter.

For his selection as the Welding I most outstanding student, McDaniel earned a scholarship to East Central Community College, where he will seek advanced knowledge in his trade upon graduation.
