

Career and Technical Education

Student of the Month

DECEMBER 2017

STUDENT OF THE MONTH
NORTH-CENTRAL AREA

Elijah Caudill – Welding
Winston-Louisville Career and Technical Center

INSTRUCTOR’S NAME: Shane McDaniel

CURRENT GRADE: 4.0
ATTENDANCE: Excellent

Elijah Caudill, a welding student at Winston-Louisville Career and Technology Center, is being honored by the Mississippi Construction Education Foundation as student of the month for the state’s north central region.

Combining an eagerness to learn with a reputation for going above and beyond, Caudill is a leader in and out of the classroom. He is hailed for his willingness to help others and excels in all subject areas as evidenced by his perfect grade point average.

A standout in trade competitions, Caudill is past president of the Opening and Closing team that earned first place honors at the district and state levels in 2016. He is currently preparing for the 2018 competition as a member of the welding fabrication team.

Caudill is a member in Oak Grove Baptist Church, where he is active in Bible drills, the music department, and summer outreach programs. He participates on the Mayor’s Council, the inner city Good News Club, and Grace Christian School’s varsity basketball and baseball teams.

Upon graduation, Caudill plans to earn his associate degree from East Central Community College before studying aerospace engineering at Mississippi State University.