

Student of the Month – March 2015
North Area

Daryl Dewayne Milan, Carpentry
North Panola Career and Tech Center

Instructor's Name: Billy Bonner
Current GPA: 3.0
Attendance: Perfect attendance

Daryl is a ninth grade honor roll student, presently enrolled in Honors English I, and is an active JROTC member. He is a model student, who has never had any discipline issues in school. He is a very responsible young man who is capable of teaching others the skills he has learned. Daryl is involved in JROTC fundraising activities, and is involved with community service projects.

After graduation, Daryl plans to join the Air Force, receive a full scholarship, and attend a major university. He plans to major in the medical field or education so that he can help others become better. Daryl enjoys helping people in need as well as encouraging others to pursue their educational dreams.