

Student of the Month – November 2014 Central Area

Brody Burchfield, Welding Winston-Louisville Career & Tech Center

Brady Burchfield has showed great leadership in the shop and has advanced in all of the welding processes. He is the current quarterback on the high school football team and displays the same qualities in the shop. His future plans will include attending Mississippi State University in Industrial Engineering.