

Student of the Month – October 2016
South Central Area

James Channing Caves, Welding
Wayne County Career Technical Center

Instructor's Name: Chris Turner
Current GPA: 3.37
Attendance: Excellent

Channing has successfully completed Welding I & II and is currently a third-year welding student. He has excellent grades not only in welding but also in his other subjects as evidenced by his 3.3636 GPA. He is a well-disciplined young man who has very positive leadership qualities, directing other students by example.

Channing received the Best All Around certificate in Welding II. After graduation, he plans to attend Jones County Jr. College where he hopes to complete his basic college requirements, then transferring to a senior college where he would like to major in business. Ultimately, he wants to return home and work in his family's business.
